Course Description

Entertainment and sport are ubiquitous in modern life, and no sport commands as much power as the Beautiful Game. This multidisciplinary course examines soccer as a way to understand problems present in modern societies. The following pressing questions provide a backbone for this course: What is Justice? Who has the power? For this course, Soccer is the means to examine these questions. Soccer Explains the World asks what are the dynamics of power and justice in soccer; how does soccer exemplify the dynamics of justice and power in society; how do concepts of justice and power play out on and off the soccer pitch; how does soccer deal with problems of inequality such as racism, sexism, poverty, etc.? Essentially, this course examines how soccer explains the world in terms of justice and power. Soccer Explains The World looks through historical, sociological, psychological, linguistic and political questions to address the pressing question of Justice and Power. The material for the course come from both primary and secondary sources including films, readings, music, live events, radio broadcasts, debates, and personal experience interviews.

Quest and General Education Credit

- Quest 1
- Humanities

This course accomplishes the Quest and General Education objectives of the subject areas listed above. A minimum grade of C is required for Quest and General Education credit. Courses intended to satisfy Quest and General Education requirements cannot be taken S-U.

Required Readings and Works

Materials and Supplies Fees: n/a

All works are available and labeled in Canvas. These works are from scholarly journals, news articles, podcasts, documentaries, and books that students can obtain from the UF library resources or are freely available online in addition to the Canvas site.

Because of the current and topical nature of this course, new readings WILL be added during the semester. There will be ample notice given when new readings are scheduled.

Writing Assessment Rubric – For All Writing Assignments

Total ___/100	Excellent	Good	Needs Improvement	See your Instructor
CONTENT	(+40) I had a clear focus that addressed the prompt, included numerous specific details, and made a point. I elaborated on the topic by including creative or unique details.	(+37) My text had a clear focus that addressed the prompt, included some appropriate details, and made a point.	(+33) I stayed within the topic and my intentions were clear, but I didn't include enough details to sufficiently address the prompt. I needed to include more details!	(+25) I strayed from the topic or only addressed it superficially and/or did not include concrete details. My point in the text was not clear!
ORGANIZATION AND COHERENCE	(+20) I organized my text in a way that made sense from start to finish. I used some transition words or phrases. Overall, my text flowed very well for my level. The introduction adequately states the thesis, the support and details are in the body and I conclude reinforcing the thesis	(+16) I organized my text in a way that generally made sense and flowed well from one topic to another. The thesis is present, there are details, but the general flow still lacks some refinement.	(+13) I produced a text roughly organized by topic, but my text jumped around because I had choppy or unclear transitions between ideas. My objectives and thesis were not clear. The details and support were weak or not found.	(+10) I did not organize my information in a logical way, and as a result, the reader frequently was lost, or had to make an extra effort to see the connections between my ideas.
ARGUMENT AND SUPPORT	(+20) Materials from the semester support my articles and I show that they strengthen my argument. Reveals a high degree of critical thinking.	(+16) I used some materials to make my argument. They were present but didn't entirely strengthen my argument. Critical thinking is weaved into points.	(+13) I rarely mention the materials from the class. Some critical thinking is present.	(+10) I didn't mention any details or material from the semester. Ideas are vague with little evidence of critical thinking.
STYLE	(+10) Shows outstanding style going beyond usual college level; rhetorical devices and tone used effectively; creative use of sentence structure and coordination.	(+8) Attains college level style; tone is appropriate and rhetorical devices used to enhance content; sentence variety used effectively	(+6) Approaches college level usage of some variety in sentence patterns, diction, and rhetorical devices.	(+3) Mostly in elementary form with little or no variety in sentence structure, diction, rhetorical devices or emphasis.

MECHANICS	(+10) My grammar included very few errors and the reader had no trouble understanding my text. Common errors would be missing commas, a simple typo, or slightly confusing syntax	(+8) I had some errors, but those errors were not consistent and did not greatly keep the reader from understanding my text. The number of errors begins to cause the reader troubles, but is not enough to impede comprehensibility. Examples are wordy sentences, several misspellings, incorrect punctuation, etc.	(+6) There were grammar mistakes that I struggled with throughout the text. These errors sometimes kept the reader from understanding my text. Additionally, several sentences did not make sense because of syntactic problems.	(+3) I had many mistakes in the majority of the paper. These errors caused chunks of my text to be unclear to the reader.

Content	(+40) I include numerous specific details about my topic and make excellent, provocative connections between the pieces of information that I present and what we have studied in class. I demonstrate solid knowledge of my topic. If questions are asked, I can answer them or appropriately address them.	(+35) I include some specific details about my topic and make connections between the information that I present, but there are a few gaps where I do not elaborate / make connections between pieces of information that I present and/or what we have studied in class. I demonstrate solid knowledge of my topic If questions are asked, I can answer most of them or appropriately address them.	(+30) I include few specific details about my topic and make few to no connections between the information that I present. That is, my presentation feels “random” because I do not elaborate. I demonstrate some knowledge of my topic in the presentation, but I struggle in conveying the information I am unable to answer questions about my topic and do not provide appropriate information to address them. Classroom Engagement Be Active	(+4) I am always active in class activities, I regularly participate in whole-class conversations, and I participate in small-group activities. My comments relate to what we're doing, and I go beyond the basics and take risks with the information to share my thoughts and opinions.	(+3) I participate in every small-group activity, completing all parts of every assigned task as required. I sometimes contribute to whole-group discussions, and my comments relate to what we're doing.	(+2) I mostly participate in the assigned activities, but I sometimes show a lack of effort or interest that causes me to not fully participate in class conversations. AND/OR My comments sometimes don't relate to what we're doing.	(+1) I don't offer many comments in small-group and/or whole-group activities.
Preparation Be Prepared	(+3) I always come to class fully prepared with all necessary materials (texts) The questions I ask and the comments I make always show that I have prepared for class by reading the material assigned.	(+2) I almost always come to class fully prepared. The questions I ask and the comments I make show that I am almost always prepared for class.	(+1) I usually come to class fully prepared with access to the texts, but sometimes I obviously don't have materials and/or haven't prepared by reading for class	(0) I rarely or never come to class with the materials I need to be successful. AND/OR I often seem confused about what we are doing in class because I haven't prepared.
Collegiality Be Respectful	(+3) I am respectful to the instructor and to my peers. I am a good colleague (e.g., involving others, helping the students around me) in tasks and before/after tasks. I add to the positive classroom culture. I never use technology (e.g. cellphone) inappropriately in the classroom.	(+2) I am respectful to my instructor and peers. I am generally a good colleague. I occasionally show an effort to engage with and help the students around me in tasks and before and after tasks. I never use technology inappropriately in the classroom.	(+1) I am respectful to my instructor and peers, but mostly keep to myself in the classroom. I never use technology inappropriately in the classroom.	(0) I use technology (e.g., cellphone) inappropriately in the classroom, thus showing a lack of interest in our class.

III. Annotated Weekly Schedule

Soccer Explains the World divides the semester into weeks. Each week has a specific topic to address the major theme of Power and Justice. Below is the weekly schedule, which shows the topic, the readings, and any assignments due that week. The weekly topics vary in nature, but principally revolve around historical, political, social, and cultural influence and impact that soccer has on modern life.

Week/ Date	Topic	Prepare for class	Assigned Work Due
Week 1	Introduction: Soccer, History, and Politics: Why is studying soccer a window to the world? Examine the cultural phenomena of sports.	Studying sports helps understand society by using them to shine light on problems (or perceived problems) of justice and power. Sports are about rules and being just and fair. Additionally, sports in the modern day have huge power over individuals, groups, even nations.

V. Quest Learning Experiences

1. Details of Experiential Learning Component

Experiential Learning Experiences are assignments or activities that go beyond the classroom and invite the student to interact with the world through the lens of the course. There are two experiential Learning Components in the course: Listening to a Podcast and conducting an Interview.

INTERVIEW: Women play soccer too!?

Soccer influences people in different ways. Many women that grew up playing soccer faced a different system, expectation, prejudices, and reality when compared to their male counter parts. For this assignment, you will Interview a woman who plays, or played, organize soccer. This means that the person could have played recreation, club, high school, or some other form of organized soccer. In the interview, you will discuss what it means to be a female soccer player and get her views on gender pay inequality in the sport. If you are unable to find someone to interview, the professor will assist and put you in contact with some people that are current or former soccer players from organized leagues.

- The grade will come from on the following:
 - A list of ten question related to women and soccer.
 - Answers from interviewee must be included.
 - A selfie with the interviewee in the context of the interview to establish authenticity

Paper 2: Listening to a Podcast

For this experience, you must listen to a podcast about soccer. The professor will provide a list of websites that have legal and free audio broadcasts. After listening, you will write a reflection on the experience and comment on how listening to a podcast changes your view of a game or the sport. Additionally, give a summary of the topics discussed. Think about how the media empire that presents games on television differs in its influence over you when you merely listen to people talk about a game.

- This writing assignment is to be 250-words and is graded using the Writing Rubric.

Paper 3: Write a Match Report

For this experience, you must watch to a professional soccer match and write a match report. An example of a match report is on the Canvas website.

- This writing assignment is to be 500-words and is graded using the Writing Rubric.

2. Details of Self-Reflection Component

There are two self-reflection assignments in this course. Both of these assignments require a written response to an experience.

Paper 1: Why this course and Why soccer

The first assignment asks you to think about why you took this course and what soccer means to you. How does soccer or sport affect your life? What power does it have over you? What are your emotions when 'your' team play? How does soccer/sport make you feel? What power does soccer have on the world?

- This assignment will be 250-word count and is graded using the Writing Rubric.

Paper 4: Documentary Film

For this assignment, you will watch a documentary film about a soccer star. This writing assignment asks you to reflect on what heroes, stars, and superstars mean to you. Whom do you admire? Why do you admire them? Does their power and stardom affect your life? Does their power and stardom affect other people's lives? How? There are numerous documentaries on paid websites as well as available for free websites and through the library.

- This reflection paper will be 500-word count and is graded using the Writing Rubric.

3. Details of Analytic Essay

Paper 5 – Analytic Essay: Does Soccer Explain the World?

For the final writing assignment, you will analyze what you learned throughout the semester and answer the question: Does soccer explain the world? In this paper, you will analyze and explain your beliefs and opinions on the pressing questions of justice and power and their relationship to soccer. Show that you either believe or do not believe that soccer is a good example of asking the questions: What is justice? and; Who has the power? To accomplish this, you must use the materials that we used in the course to make and substantiate your arguments. Throughout the semester, we have used a variety of materials: lectures, movies, radio, broadcasts, newspaper articles, etc. Some of items listed that were used in the course of the semester must be employed to strengthen your argument as you analyze the question.

- This analytical essay paper will be 1000-word count and is graded using the Writing Rubric

VI. Required Policies

Attendance Policy

Requirements for class attendance and make-up exams, assignments, and other work in this course are consistent with university policies that can be found at:

Students Requiring Accommodation

Students with disabilities who experience learning barriers and would like to request academic accommodations should connect with the disability Resource Center by visiting <https://disability.ufl.edu/students/get-started/>. It is important for students to share their accommodation letter with their instructor and discuss their access needs, as early as possible in the semester.

UF Evaluations Process

Students are expected to provide professional and respectful feedback on the quality of instruction in this course by completing course evaluations online via GatorEvals. Guidance on how to give feedback in a professional and respectful manner is available at <https://gatorevals.aa.ufl.edu/students/>. Students will be notified when the evaluation period opens, and can complete evaluations through the email they receive from GatorEvals, in their Canvas course menu under GatorEvals, or via <https://ufl.bluera.com/ufl/>. Summaries of course evaluation results are available to students at <https://gatorevals.aa.ufl.edu/public-results/>.

University Honesty Policy

UF students are bound by The Honor Pledge which states, “We, the members of the University of Florida community, pledge to hold ourselves and our peers to the highest standards of honor and integrity by abiding by the Honor Code. On all work submitted for credit by students at the University of Florida, the following pledge is either required or implied: “On my honor, I have neither given nor received unauthorized aid in doing this assignment.” The Honor Code (<https://www.dso.ufl.edu/sccr/process/student-conduct-honor-code/>) specifies a number of behaviors that are in violation of this code and the possible sanctions. Furthermore, you are obligated to report any condition that facilitates academic misconduct to appropriate personnel. If you have any questions or concerns, please consult with the instructor or TAs in this class.

Counseling and Wellness Center

The Writing Studio

The writing studio is committed to helping University of Florida students meet their academic and professional goals by becoming better writers. Visit the writing studio online at <http://writing.ufl.edu/writing-studio/> or in 2215 Turlington Hall for one-on-one consultations and workshops.

In-Class Recordings

Students are allowed to record video or audio of class lectures. However, the purposes for which these recordings may be used are strictly controlled. The only allowable purposes are (1) for personal educational use, (2) in connection with a complaint to the university, or (3) as evidence in, or in preparation for, a criminal or civil proceeding. All other purposes are prohibited. Specifically, students may not publish recorded lectures without the written consent of the instructor.

A “class lecture” is an educational presentation intended to inform or teach enrolled students about a particular subject, including any instructor-led discussions that form part of the presentation, and delivered by any instructor hired or appointed by the University, or by a guest instructor, as part of a University of Florida course. A class lecture does not include lab sessions, student presentations, clinical presentations such as patient history, academic exercises involving solely student participation, assessments (quizzes, tests, exams), field trips, private conversations between students in the class or between a student and the faculty or lecturer during a class session.

Publication without permission of the instructor is prohibited. To “publish” means to share, transmit, circulate, distribute, or provide access to a recording, regardless of format or medium, to another person (or persons), including but not limited to another student within the same class section. Additionally, a recording, or transcript of a recording, is considered published if it is posted on or uploaded to, in whole or in part, any media platform, including but not limited to social media, book, magazine, newspaper, leaflet, or third party note/tutoring services. A student who publishes a recording without written consent may be subject to a civil cause of action instituted by a person injured by the publication and/or discipline under UF Regulation 4.040 Student Honor Code and Student Conduct Code.
